

The image shows two pages of a handwritten church register, likely a baptismal or marriage register, from the 17th or 18th century. The pages are numbered 177 and 178. The entries are organized in columns, with the first column representing the day of the month and the subsequent columns representing the names of the individuals involved. The handwriting is in a cursive script typical of the period. A red box highlights a specific entry on the right page, dated June 21st (xxi. Junius), which mentions 'Catharina Apollonia' and 'Anna Catharina'.
